

Be Proud of His Heavenly Missions

Hope Chapel Tokorozawa

Romans 15:14-33

“In Christ Jesus, then, I have reason to be proud of my work for God. For I will not venture to speak of anything except what Christ has accomplished through me to bring the Gentiles to obedience...” (Romans 15:17-18, ESV)

Introduction

Jesus has involved us in His heavenly missions. Today, let’s look at Romans Chapter 15, and consider His great missions we should be proud of.

1. To Bring the Good News

(15:14-21)

A. As His priests (vv.14-17)

B. As His messengers (vv.18-21)

2. To Share the Blessings

(15:22-29)

A. Spiritual blessings (vv.22-25, 29; See also Romans 1:11-13)

B. Material blessings (vv.26-28)

3. To Pray for the Completion

(15:30-33)

A. Missions in the present (vv.30-31)

B. Missions in the future (vv.32-33)

For our prayers, study, discussion, and application

1. Who do you want to bring the Good News this week?
2. Who do you want to share God’s blessings with? What blessing?
3. What do you think God wants you to pray for now?

20170924hcte