

Trusting in the Most High God

Psalm 91
Hope Chapel Tokorozawa

“He who dwells in the shelter of the Most High will abide in the shadow of the Almighty.
I will say to the Lord, ‘My refuge and my fortress,
my God, in whom trust.’”
(Psalm 91:1-2, ESV)

Introduction

The Most High God is trustworthy. Today, let’s look at Psalm 91, and renew our trust in Him.

1. Through Our Confession of Faith

- A. Four names (91:1-2)
- B. Four illustrations (91:1-2)

2. Through Our Proclamation of His Deliverance

- A. His deliverance (91:3-4)
- B. His peace (91:5-6)
- C. His judgment (91:7-8)
- D. Our refuge (91:9-10)
- E. His angels (91:11-13)

3. Through the Word with His Promises

- A. The covenant (91:14)
- B. The God with us (91:15)
- C. Eternal life (91:16)

For prayer, study, discussion, and application

1. Who is the Most High God to you?
2. Who do you want to share the news of Jesus’ salvation with this year?
3. What promise has God given you?

20210103hcte